DID YOU KNOW?

- ...the island of Korčula is surrounded by 19 smaller islands with gorgeous beaches - each of them a veritable paradise for boaters.
- ...Korčula's seafarers and travellers often brought home customs and spectacles that they witnessed abroad and liked, and that is how the knighly game of Moreška originated. This dynamic sword dance of black and white knights is over 400 years old, and survives only on Korčula.
- ...that the town of Korčula is home to the oldest Croatian legal code, also the second oldest among the Slavs: the Korčula Town Statute dates back to 1214.
- ...that it is also known as the birthplace of the famous explorer and traveller Marco Polo. ACI Marina Korčula is an excellent starting point for exploring not only the renowned adventurer's life, but also the rich history of the town itself, as well as everything that has earned it a privileged position among Croatian island towns.

DID YOU KNOW?

- ...that the Passage Harpoti was once called the Doors of Pompeii. The legend states that in 47 BC the Pompeian fleet commanded by Marcus Octavius, fleeing from the more numerous Caesar's galleys, used the almost invisible passage and escaped the pursuers.
- ...that the walls between Ston and Mali Ston with their length of 5,5 km are the longest fortified system in Europe.
- ...that the name Slano, according to legend, comes from the strong charge of the meeting of the land and the sea from the period when a Bosnian queen on a horse and her servants reached the sea and, there, for the first time in her life she realized that the seawater is salty.
- ...that the newest ACI marina in Slano is the ideal starting point for cruising the Elaphite islands or for a trip to Dubrovnik. It was named after the creator of the ACI marina chain Veljko Barbieri. It was built in a beautiful bay, which has always been a good shelter for all boats. There is a 50-kilometre bicycle trail for visitors who want an active vacation on Dubrovnik's shore.

DID YOU KNOW?

- ...that in the south of Dalmatia, where the string of Adriatic islands ends and the open sea begins, at the foot of Srđ hill, lies the pearl of the Adriatic, an UNESCO World Heritage Site that dates back to the 7th century.
- ...that among many world cities, Dubrovnik is one of those that has best kept its walls and historical center. It is precisely because of its walls that...
- ...that Dubrovnik is a magnet today that attracts numerous tourists, film crews and the global elite. Dubrovnik has been the host of the crews of the most popular TV shows and films today: Star Wars, Game of Thrones, Robin Hood... One of the most attractive ways of visiting Dubrovnik is via the sea. ACI marina Dubrovnik, located in Komolac, in Rijeka Dubrovačka, is only six kilometers away from the old Dubrovnik center.
- ...that the Dubrovnik Summer Festival traditionally opens with a performance of the "Ode to Liberty," with lyrics by 17th-century Dubrovnik poet Ivan Gundulić and music by 20th-century composer Jakov Gotovac.

DID YOU KNOW?

- ...that ACI marina Dubrovnik offers a unique and attractive sports activity - play golf and have fun on mini golf with 9 lanes. On our Golf Range you can practice all golf shots with golf clubs and golf balls available on the reception desk and included in price per hour. Guests of all ages are welcome. Spend your free time actively - on the ACI Golf Range!
- ...that For many years, ACI marinas have regularly won prestigious awards and recognitions "Tourism Flower - Quality for Croatia," awarded to the most successful, the best and the most recognized Croatian tourist companies and destinations. Korčula and Dubrovnik are among them.

...ACI marinas have become part of the Tesla Destination Charging global network – electric charging stations for electric cars.

ACI Marina Korčula

is situated right next to its historic center. The town is 130 kilometers from Dubrovnik's Čilipi Airport, and in the summer the island has good ferry connections to Orebić on the Pelješac peninsula, to Split, Rijeka, Zadar, Dubrovnik, Lastovo and Hvar, and to Drvenik and the Italian towns of Ancona and Pescara. There are fast catamaran services to Lastovo, Hvar and Split throughout the year and to Dubrovnik in the summer. The town of Korčula, in the northeast of its namesake South Dalmatian island, is among the most beautiful and best preserved medieval towns on the Croatian coast and in all of the Mediterranean, and is justly referred to as "Little Dubrovnik."

ACI Marina "Veljko Barbieri" Slano

is located in the northeast part of the spacious Slano harbor, which burrowed itself one nautical mile into the land on the northern shore of the Koločepski channel. The marina is well protected from all winds and has been a famous mooring spot since antiquity. The harbor light is situated on the local boardwalk, 150 meters to the northwest from the marina. One needs to sail on the NE course from the entrance to the Slano harbor to reach the marina. The water depths in the marina are sufficient for safe sailing and are mostly between 10 and 35 meters. The water is only shallower near the shores (to a minimum of five meters).
