

HERITAGE HOTEL ANTIQUE SPLIT hotel

Heritage Hotel "Antique Split" is a family run hotel located in the heart of the Diocletian's Palace, just few steps from the Emperor's square "Peristyle" and St. Dujice's Cathedral. The hotel is a combination of the modern and antique interior. Original rock stone walls intertwined with modern handmade furniture lead into the Roman time and display the ambience of very own tsar Diocletian's era. Mediterranean temper combined with urban rhythm and 1700 years old soul of the Palace, will embrace every single visitor...

DID YOU KNOW?

...that 1.5 km east of Trogir there is a 500-metre shingle and sand beach backed by a pine forest, and nearby is Komarac ("Mosquito") beach, very popular with young people. The most popular and most beautiful beach on the Trogir Riviera is the Okrug Gornji beach on the western coast of the island of Čiovo, 2 km from Trogir town center.

...that bird-watching tourism is developing rapidly in Pantan Nature Park, the site appearing on the radar of many bird-watchers from all over the world in recent years. The park is easily reached because of its proximity to the Trogir town center – it is a mere 2 km away.

...that Split is home to the Museum of Croatian Archaeological Monuments, the oldest museum in Croatia, founded in 1820. The museum houses priceless artifacts of ancient cultures which left their mark here.

...that according to recent theories, Diocletian's Palace in Split was more than just a place of leisure, but housed wool -processing facility that funded the former Emperor's court.

DID YOU KNOW?

...that Milna is the largest, best-protected, and the most beautiful bay on the western shore of the island, which offers security and peace from all winds. Thanks to that, it is one of the best known safe harbors for charter during the summer season. It is a bay facing the Splitska vrata strait.

...that one of the attractions of the island of Brač is piles of unprocessed stone stacked into dry-stone walls alongside footpaths between fields. They are said to contain the same amount of stone, although unprocessed, as the pyramids of Egypt, totaling about 7 million cubic meters.

...that the American Islands magazine included Brač on their list of 10 best islands to live on, alongside Big Pine Key in Florida, Crete in Greece, Nevis in the Caribbean, Langkawi in Malaysia... As advantages of Brač they mention the local tradition of "enjoying life," including healthy eating, a pleasant climate and a culture which cherishes the importance of family ties and the preservation of tradition.

DID YOU KNOW?

...that In the middle of the bay there is an island and numerous small bridges span the channel, earning Vrboska the nickname of "Little Venice".

...that this area, with the preserved ancient stone borders and archeological findings, has been protected by UNESCO since 2009 as a part of the world cultural and historical heritage. Mediterranean architecture with characteristic stone buildings and narrow streets, predominate in the town. This idyllic picture is complemented by the thick pine forest hugging the town on the landward side, and beautiful beaches and coves on the seaward side.

...that the bay where the town of Vrboska is located is long and narrow, like a fjord. ACI marina Vrboska is located in the outer part of the harbor of Vrboska.

DID YOU KNOW?

...that Palmizana, the most beautiful and the safest of the many bays of the Pakleni islands, which are, despite their name, absolutely heavenly, lies opposite the sunniest Croatian island that marks around 2,800 sunny hours and the town of Hvar, which are just 2.5 nm away. Palmizana has always been known as one of the most famous haunts of Hvar residents, as well as a safe haven for all boaters and fishermen.

...that the marina was built mid-1908s, and due to its position and natural beauty, in time, it has become one of the most popular marinas on the Adriatic and an indispensable destination of all sailors. At this popular boating destination, you can experience a relaxed and carefree holiday in a unique atmosphere of harmony with nature.

...that you can have dinner in an art gallery or botanical garden and enjoy Dalmatian cuisine, full of unmistakable flavors, while basking in the aromatic air of the Mediterranean. From swimming and hiking to kayaking, diving and surfing, Palmizana offers plenty of opportunities for an exciting holiday.
