RESTAURANT ZIGAN

River Mirna vallery (Istria) is the home of the famous Istrian truffle. The truffle holds an irreplaceable position in the world gastronomy, but how many of them could boast with the fact that this precious mushroom grows in the untouched nature just outside their courtyard? This restaurant sure can.

that tourism in Opatija began in 1844, when the rich merchant Iginio Scarpa built the Villa Angiolina summer house. Noble persons began to stay at the villa, including Maria Anna of Savoy, Empress of Austria, who spent three months there, spreading the Angiolina's fame at the Viennese court.

that the first hotel in Opatija was built in 1884, and it is still open. today under the same name – Kvarner. By the end of the 19th century, Opatija became a trendy tourist destination where the Habsburgs and crowned heads of Romania, Sweden, Norway, as well as Chekhov, Mahler, Isadora Duncan and many more spent their summers.

that ACI marina Opatija is located in the town of Ičići, not far from Opatija. It is sufficiently close to the town with all the contents it offers, while, at the same time, being at a decent distance to enjoy the peace and safety of the ACI marina with a great beach nearby.

...that it is not just tourists that enjoy Draga's beaches and coves. As photography enthusiasts know, numerous bird species have discovered this paradise; some find favorable conditions for nesting, whilst migratory birds settle here for the winter.

that the island and the town of Rab, both known in Latin as Felix Arba, have been continuously settled since prehistoric times, and that ancient cartographers, as well as Pliny and Ptolemy, mention Rab as an Illyrian stronghold. Ancient Rab already had a water supply system, baths, temples, a theatre, and a network of streets.

that during Rab Fair at the end of July, the entire town is brought 500 years into the past and transformed into a medieval fortress with jousting tournaments, craftsmen in the streets and squares with thousands of people dressed in historical costumes... ACI marina Rab is located just next to the town, in the Rab town harbor.
