TOURIST CLASSICS

PROMENADE – in the streets

Spending a day in the city does not necessarily mean you have to go somewhere specific. Forget about planned sightseeing, festivals and exhibitions – at least for one day. The best way to experience the city is to sit back on one of the numerous coffeehouse terraces in TKALČIĆEVA, BOGOVIĆEVA Street or at the FLOWER SQUARE and soak up the vibe of the city. These are also some of the best spots for people watching and street photography. And the sun, of course –don't forget your sunglasses, you will have a hard time to blend in without!

LICITAR HEARTS

If you have already been in any souvenir shop, you must have noticed these little, red, shiny and anatomically incorrect hearts. Traditionally, these hearts were given away on Valentine's day to express feelings to someone, and when you took a peek into the mirror in their center, you would see that you are in their heart. Awww. Sniff. Smooch. If you're not impressed with this idea or with whoever gives you this heart, don't throw it away – you can actually eat it! Tip: if you need a more formal souvenir ( for your dad ), a NECKTIE is Croatian's number one souvenir classic.

DOLAC

When was the last time you saw a farmers market? Here is your opportunity; almost every quarter in Zagreb has one. And the most famous of all is DOLAC, right off the main square. It's kind of a ritual to come here and buy fresh fruits and vegetables, especially on Saturday and Sunday mornings. When you climb the stairs, you'll be greeted by kumica, a sculpture dedicated to hard working farmwomen who still walk 5-6 kilometers carrying a basket full of food on their head to sell it in the market. Talk about hard life, huh! And red umbrellas protecting the hard working kumice from the sun? These are the most recognizable souvenirs of Zagreb called ŠESTINSKI KIŠOBRAN. A perfect souvenir gift for your (grand) parents!

THE GRIČ CANNON

Walking around the Upper Town around noon will make your heart skip a beat. Not because of the romantic ambience but because the big boom is sure to rattle your nerves!! Say hello to our audio clock that has been marking Zagreb for more than 100 years. It's real cannon placed at the top of the LOTRŠČAK tower (try pronouncing that)

If you'd like to keep up with the GRIČ cannon when you leave Zagreb, follow it on Twitter @gricki_top. It tweets once a day ( guess when) saying

“BOOM!”
