PRIMOŠTEN

www.tz-primosten.hr

Discover Primošten, a beautiful and irresistible small town, a special gift of nature situated between Šibenik and Split. Built on an islet connected with the land with a bridge, Primošten is one of the most popular touristic places in Dalmatia with stone houses, churches and many typical tight streets in the old part of the city on the mountains. There is a myth on how Primošten was created. Locals will tell you that God created Primošten as a resting place after 7 days of creating the Earth. So, visit Primošten and discover this paradise on Earth!

MURTER

www.tzo-murter.hr

The island of Murter is located in the northwest part of the Šibenik archipelago, separated from the mainland by narrow sea canal at Tisno which is spanned by a 12 meter draw-bridge. Located at the entrance to the Kornati Islands (Murter inhabitants own most of the land), Murter is an attractive sport for yachtsmen and all lovers of quiet relaxation.

TRIBUNJ

www.tz-tribunj.hr

Tribunj is located in the very heart of Dalmatia, only 15 km from Šibenik and 60 km from Zadar. Tribunj developed from a medieval Croatian fortress Jurjevgrad, mentioned in the 13th century, which spread onto a picturesque peninsula crossing over an old stone bridge. Packed houses, narrow streets, numerous churches, fort and castle ruins are the testimonies of the rich and troubled history which contribute to that special Dalmatian atmosphere. At night the squares live by the melodies of the summer, klapa songs, folklore performances, sports tournaments and two biggest festivities – Fishermen's Night and Donkey Races.

ZADAR

www.zadar.travel

Situated in the heart of the Adriatic, Zadar is the urban center of northern Dalmatia as administrative, economic, cultural and political center of the region with 75,000 inhabitants. The coast is particularly indented, the islands and the untouched nature allure many boaters to this region. The particularity of the city is irresistible for those who respect and admire historical monuments and cultural heritage, artists, tourists and its citizens. Zadar is a city monument, surrounded by historical ramparts, a treasury of the archaeological and monumental riches of ancient and medieval times, Renaissance and many contemporary architectural achievements such as the first sea organs in the world.

ŠIBENIK

DISCOVER A PLACE WHERE YOU ARE NOT A STRANGER

A city that has been conserving its secrets for centuries and will surely attract you with its exceptional charm. A walk through the little streets known as "kale" in Šibenik, a view from the fortress and.... Welcome to the city which will remain within you heart... Welcome to Šibenik.

Šibenik is a culturally rich city. It is an ancient cultural center, looked after by many, especially when it comes to preservation of cultural goods. The city has a large library and publishing industry festivals and conventions, exhibitions, musical and stage shows, book depositories and museums. In 2003. Šibenik was declared "The first Croatian Culture City".

The greatest artistic and architectural riches of the city of Šibenik originate from its golden age which lasted from the end of the 14th until the middle of the 17th century when it became the treasury of artistic and architectural heritage. The most well renowned Šibenik monuments are the St. James Cathedral (UNESCO), the Town Hall, a Renaissance square between them and the fortresses (St. Nicholas, St. John, Barone and St. Michael with the most beautiful summer stage).

One can see and experience the greatest part of the riches of Šibenik by walking through its ancient streets, and it is also worth strolling into its museums, churches, taking a look at their historical collections and entering galleries in which many unexpected surprises and valuable spiritual experiences are hidden. If during any conversation children, singing and music are mentioned at the same time, there is no doubt that the topic is Šibenik. Singing and music have been embedded into very foundations of the old city of Šibenik. It is a musical instrument made of stone which vibrates with the sweet-sounding joy. In the city of Šibenik, both by day and by night, you can enjoy, spend some time in the new city library, visit sacral monuments, exhibitions or take part in the many events and attractions.
