Hello, hello, welcome and dobrodošli.

Thank you for visiting our beautiful city. It is one of the best places to enjoy sizzling chestnuts and autumn leaves. Take a stroll down the modern avenues or history lanes, but always have this map by your side. You will never get lost and will always have ideas what to visit.

TOURIST INFO
Our city is well connected with trams and buses. 15 daytime tram lines will get you anywhere you want in the wider centre. Night trams run from midnight to 4am, every 45 minutes or so, but note that sometimes trams are replaced by buses (same routes and stations). Tickets can be purchased at newspaper stands or from the driver (higher price). Ticket controls are very common in trams, so unless you're terribly charming or a talented actor with a knack for ignorance, you better pay for your ride.

TIPPING
Tipping is appreciated but not mandatory. If you're satisfied with your service, leave a tip. Our waiters don't depend on tips to make a living (like in the States), but tip is a very welcome supplement to their (usually) low wages. What people here commonly do, is to round a bill to a nearest ten. For example if 2 coffees are 18kn, leave 2kn on a table. In restaurants, customers tip more frequently. Add 10-15% to your bill- depending on the amount, service and type of the restaurant.

WIFI
WIFI is available almost everywhere, from cafes and restaurants to hotels and squares, but public access is uncommon. Passwords are usually written on bills, pricelists or above bars.

CURRENCY
Croatian KUNA. Kuna is Croatian for marten, a cute furry animal, whose fur was used by our people centuries ago as payment; hence the name. One Kuna is divided into 100 LIPA (Tilia tree, can you believe?). Do make sure you exchange your currency for Kunas as you will not be able to use them much for paying.
